TO PRODUCE CROPS

You know very well that animal matter is the best crop producer known and it is evident from the very nature of our business that we have plenty of just such material. We are mixing this material with high grade Potash and placing before Vermont Farmers our Burlington Animal Fertilizer for all crops. What more can you ask for? A Vermont product of merit for which we ask Vermont patronage.

of the committee appointed previously to submit the by-laws and constitution drawn up by them. In the absence of Chairman George E. Whitney of this committee, Secretary Frank L. Graves read the by-laws and constitution which were unanimously accepted and adopted. The constitution was then signed by a large number present thus perfecting the organization. H. N. Deavitt moved that the chair appoint a committee of nine who would submit a list of names for officers of the board. The following were selected to serve on such committee: Arthur Deavitt, Henry Conlin, E. Edward Allard, Hector Hurd, Alphonse Dubuc, J. B. Lavelly, Louis Alapa, Alphonse Potvin, H. A. Bailey. The committee reported favorably on the following list of officers: President, Charles H. Stevens, first vice-president, H. A. Bailey, second vice-president, Emil Blais; secretary, Frank L. Graves; treasurer, Charles H. Shipman; board of directors, Hector Hurd, C. E. Lord, R. J. White, J. B. Lavelly, George E. Whitney, A. S. C. Hill, Sidney Snyder, J. Henry McGreevy, Louis Alapa and J. B. Cheever. The report of the committee was accepted and adopted.

At a meeting of the official board of the Methodist Church held recently a resolution was passed extending a call to the Rev. E. S. Morey, their present pastor, for another year. Next month will mark the closing of Mr. Morey's fifth year as pastor of the church.

Mr. J. B. Cheever, a life long resident of Colchester, died Friday morning at his home at the age of 75. Mr. Pratt is survived by five sons, Frank, Henry, Louis, Fred and George Pratt and one daughter, Mrs. Henry Pratt, all of Colchester. The funeral was held at Essex Junction Sunday morning at nine o'clock.

In addition to the figures presented at the Essex Junction meeting, the annual report of the officers of the town of Colchester, and which were not from the regular correspondence, the following will be of interest, especially those from the report of the overseer of the poor: The report states that orders to the amount of $1,672.22 were drawn from February 1, 1905, to the date of the report. The amount of $1,357.12 was drawn by the present overseer, C. D. Flint, and the remaining $315.10 was drawn by the former overseer, A. E. Blau. The receipts, were far in excess of the disbursements for 1905 and 1906.

At the annual meeting of the Essex Junction school, the total expense of maintaining the school was $1,250.81, of which amount $1,125.25 was teachers' wages. The school superintendent, James H. Kales, and the town health officer, Dr. C. M. Ferrin, both emphasize the necessity of improved sanitary arrangements in the school-house. The superintendent putting special stress upon the matter of ventilation. The road commissioner, William C. Brien, reports expenditures amounting to $1,927.48. The Union Poor Farm association reports a deficit of $1,234.57, the expenditures for the year being $2,753.55, and 41% of the deficit is assessed to the town of Essex. The number of inmates is about 18. During the year there were in town 39 deaths and 50 births.

George W. Crown dropped on some ice on the back of his house Tuesday day and received a fracture of his right leg about half way between the knee and his body. This accident was especially serious for Mr. Crown as he lost his left leg in the battle of Winchester in 1864. He was a member of Co. H of the 2nd Vermont regiment. Part of the time of his life he has been as worn a wooden limb but for about a year has been on crutches and was using them at the time of the accident yesterday. Dr. A. T. Arkley attended him.

At the town meeting Tuesday it was voted to change the date of the annual meeting of the town school district to the last Tuesday in June.
